Casino Night

The Casino Night was a success financially and provided an enjoyable evening for our participating club members as well as our many guests. We had over one hundred gamers that enjoyed a good dinner and then played for high stakes at fourteen blackjack, craps and roulette tables.

A silent auction engaged continuous tender during the evening resulting in twenty great prizes being purchased at outstanding values. The spirited live auction induced the big gaming winners to bid aggressively on the appealing donated prizes. The evening concluded with the raffle awarding another thirty prizes to lucky ticket holders. Many participants went home with one or more cool prizes.

The event earned our club $5,000 after all expenses. A portion of these proceeds will go for college scholarships to our high school students. This success is owed to the generosity of the table sponsors, the many gift donors as well as the participants. The hard work and support of the individuals that helped to bring the event together is appreciated. A special thank you to Don Doty for heading up the event.

A goodtime was had by all and we can now look forward to the next big fundraiser in May – The Roy A Tuttle, Jr. Four Peaks Rotary Golf Tournament. Sign up early, bring friends and play golf at Eagle Mountain with dinner and more prizes.

The Guerrant Foundation

Anne Guerrant from The Guerrant Foundation gave an enlightening talk about how traveling all over the world and being humbled and moved by seeing the extreme poverty in third world countries. In 2005, she and her husband Terry, visited a micro credit lending program in India. They were truly inspired by the dignity and ambition of the women entrepreneurs they met. They started the Guerrant Foundation to help women and families improve their lives through tiny loans to start businesses.

Jessie Dunlevy is Rotary Teacher of the Month

Jessie Dunlevy, Fountain Hills Middle School science teacher, is Four Peaks Rotary Club's Teacher of the Month. Mrs. Dunlevy was honored on Thursday, January 31st. This month's award, consisting of a certificate and an honorarium of $300, was jointly sponsored by club member Jim Guess, owner of Instant Imprints, and Four Peaks Rotary

Principal Tom Brennan praised Mrs. Dunlevy for "bringing science to LIFE for her students! Her lessons are full of energy, music, movement, and hands-on fun. Through her use of a wide range of instructional techniques, she is able to reach students of all learning styles and ability levels. She is an extremely dedicated professional and a conscientious staff member. This year, Mrs. Dunlevy and her students established a school-wide recycling program on our campus. Every classroom and work area now has a blue recycling bin in place to encourage responsible care of our resources. Mrs. Dunlevy's classroom is a wonderful environment for our kids, and she sets a model to which all teachers can aspire."
